

City of Houston Investor Conference City Controller Chris B. Brown

What is it?

The conference welcomes investors (nationally or globally) to listen to presentations on financial status, entertainment showcases, and investing opportunities (upcoming bonds) for the City of Houston, all-in-all to promote Houston all together. Presenters at the conference are Rodeo Houston, Houston Combined Utility System, Houston Airport, Houston General Obligation, Houston Convention and Entertainment, METRO, Harris County, Houston Independent School District, and many more....

This Investor Conference is intended to provide information about the City of Houston (“Houston”) to current and prospective investors only. The presentations during the conference does not constitute an offer or a solicitation of an offer to buy any security.

