HPARD's Father Child Golf Tournament Offers Fun For a Good Cause

The Houston Parks and Recreation Department and Sterling Bank invite golfers and their children to tee up to benefit two youth-oriented HPARD programs, The First Tee of Houston at F.M. Law Park and Athletes Seeking Knowledge (ASK). Players can register with their children or sign up to play with a First Tee of Houston student golfer.

- WHO: Golf enthusiasts and their children
Golf students at The First Tee of Houston/F.M. Law Park
Norman Berkman, M.D., Tournament Chair
Sterling Bank Representatives
The Houston Parks and Recreation Department
The Houston Parks Board
- WHAT: First Tee of Houston at FM Law Park Father Child Charity Golf Tournament
- WHEN: Thursday, June 18, 2009
12:30 p.m. shotgun start
- WHERE: Wildcat Golf Club
12000 Almeda Road
Houston, Texas 77045
- WHY: To support HPARD programs that assist young people by providing life skills and education support through sports programming. The First Tee of Houston at F.M. Law Park offers FREE golf and life skills lessons for young people ages 7 – 18. The Athletes Seeking Knowledge program seeks to mold better student-athletes ages 12 – 18 by offering tools and guidance for achieving academic success. The tournament proceeds help fund these programs.
