Subject: COA Application – 901 Cortlandt, Houston, TX 77008

Description/Proposal:

We recently foreclosed on the property located at 901 Cortlandt and will be taking over the project. The previous owner removed two of the original windows on the left side of the house and replaced them with siding. This was done without a certificate of appropriateness. We are proposing to restore the house back to its original state by reinstalling the windows. We are working to retrieve the original windows from the previous owner. If we are unsuccessful in finding him and/or the original windows we plan to use salvaged windows that are identical to the original.
