

Corrected Public Notice

The City of Houston, through its Housing and Community Development Department (HCDD), published a Public Notice from Tuesday, November 7, 2017 through Thursday, December 7, 2017 that outlined the proposal to allocate Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS grant funds from various program years up to specific amounts designated, for participating agencies.

AIDS Foundation Houston was one of the participating agencies listed, with a designated amount up to $1,103,716.35; however the actual allocation for this agency will be $1,278,210.00.

For additional information, contact Melody Barr at 832.394.6124. For more information about HCDD and its programs, please access HCDD's website at www.houstontx.gov/housing.