

Media Contact:
RoShelle Salinas
roshelle@salinassolutions.com
281-509-1682

Houston's First Motorcycle Festival Rolls into Downtown Bikes on The Bayou

Apr. 26-28, 2019 at Eleanor Tinsley Park

HOUSTON (DATE x, 2019) – Streets will roar to life at Houston's newest two-wheeled event, Bikes on the Bayou, celebrating motorcycles, bicycles and scooters at Eleanor Tinsley Park Apr. 26-28, 2019. This all-inclusive festival will bring together all two-wheeled enthusiasts to celebrate music, culture and their riding communities.

"One of Houston's greatest attributes is its diverse community and we're excited to highlight that diversity at Houston's first motorcycle festival," said 'Outlaw' Dave Andrews. "We look forward to bringing the Houston community together for an appreciation of a variety of two-wheeled transportation while jamming to great music and building an overall festival atmosphere with the beautiful city skyline as our backdrop."

The festival is set in Eleanor Tinsley Park along Allen Parkway and the Buffalo Bayou. Eventgoers are encouraged to stroll along Allen Parkway, appreciate the scenery and enjoy all the festival has to offer.

Event organizers have meticulously chosen music acts for the festival with different genres to reset the mood each day. Thus far the line-up includes:

Friday

Headliner – Hinder

Support Act – Hold On Hollywood, Lil Troy

Saturday

Headliner – Jackyl

Support Acts – Drugstore Gypsies (Rolling Stone magazine’s Texas bands to watch ’17), Badhouse (a power trio originally from Houston), Infinity’s Twin, Troublemaker ft. Kat James, Soulshine

Sunday

Headliner – Ray Wiley Hubbard

Support Acts – Rich O’Toole, David Touchton & The Nowhere Band, The Zach Tate Band,

The three-day event will also provide motorcyclists the opportunity to participate in cruises throughout the festival space and secure overnight parking on festival grounds. Anticipated vendors will include crawfish from Sam’s Boat, food trucks, and nearly 100 vendors with cycle-centric entertainment and products.

This 2nd annual Bikes on the Bayou is made possible by Bud Light, in conjunction with Russ Brown Motorcycle Attorney, Stubbs Harley-Davidson, Stubbs Cycles, Mancuso Harley-Davidson, and Team Mancuso Powersports. Also, seeking convenience for eventgoers, Bikes on the Bayou has partnered with the Hyatt Downtown that is within walking distance of the event, to offer guests a discounted package rate of $109 a night.

The 2019 Bikes of The Bayou motorcycle festival is open daily, Friday, Apr. 26 through Sunday 28, 2018. Tickets are available now for $20 per person for the entire weekend, and include motorcycle and scooter parking with 24-hour security. For more information, visit <http://bikesonthebayou.com/>.